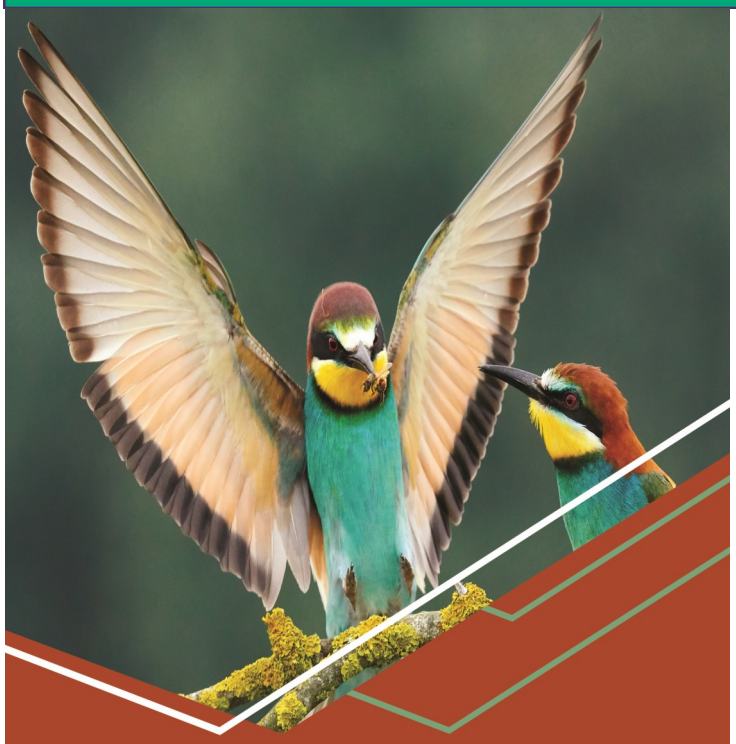
Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church

512 N. 93rd Avenue, Tolleson, Arizona 85353



25th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"For the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon." - Lk 16:8b, 13

25º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

"Pues los que pertenecen a este mundo son más hábiles en sus negocios que los que pertenecen a la luz.

No hay criado que pueda servir a dos amos, pues odiará a uno y amará al otro, o se apegará al primero y despreciará al segundo. En resumen, no pueden ustedes servir a Dios y al dinero". - Lc 16, 8. 13

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

La Carta de San Pablo a Timoteo nos cae como anillo al dedo en nuestros días presentes. ¿Se han dado cuenta ustedes que nuestros gobernantes a nivel mundial necesitan de nuestras oraciones? Las autoridades sin nuestra ayuda no pueden cumplir con sus promesas. No se trata solo de criticar y juzgar sus acciones, hay que cuestionar a la vez. Para lograr una vida tranquila y en paz el deber es de todos. La oración y el compromiso individual cuenta mucho para vivir libres de divisiones.

El Evangelio, por su parte, habla del administrador astuto. Sabemos bien, que a todos nos gusta el dinero porque cubre nuestras necesidades. Pero, la situación está en que amamos más lo material que a Dios. Confiamos más en lo que tenemos que en la Divina Providencia. Ahí está el secreto para dejar ver nuestro amor por el prójimo. Nunca se debe de explotar a la persona por dinero y luego darse golpes de pecho diciendo y creyendo que así se ama a Dios. No nos engañemos, Jesús lo pone muy claro: "Ningún siervo puede servir a dos patrones, porque necesariamente odiará a uno y amará al otro o bien será fiel a uno y despreciará al otro. Ustedes no pueden servir al mismo tiempo a Dios y al dinero" (Lucas 16,13). Existen muchas personas corruptas, con gran facilidad estafan a los ancianos, a las viudas y a los niños. El tráfico humano está a la orden del día. ¡Cuidado! No seamos ninguno de ellos, seamos astutos, pero para realizar el bien.

Sharing the Gospel

Jesus wants you to be honest. When you tell lies, your friends will not be able to trust you. Tell the truth. If you find a wallet, bring it to the police station. If you see someone drop some money, pick it up and give it back to them. If someone left a jacket or toy on the playground, don't take it. Turn it in to "lost and found." When you are honest with small things, people will see that you can be trusted with bigger things, too.

Prayer
Dear God, help me to be honest.

Something to Draw
Draw a picture of yourself giving money back to someone who dropped it.

Mission for the Week
Ask your parents to tell you ways that they choose to be honest with their work, their money, and with God.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Fixing the Scales

Most people don't intend on being selfish. The reality of selfishness usually lies in the grey shades of our decision-making. We would never go out of our way to kick a homeless person begging by the highway exit. We would never steal money from our parish collection plate.

But would we drive past the homeless person without even extending a thought or a prayer toward his need? Would we justify stinginess in time, talent, and treasure because of our own comfort? We all have been guilty of transgressions such as these in the past. We will fall again in the future.

Most of the evil in this world can be traced back to a feeling of entitlement that lurks deep within each of us — a frantic concern for our own good that we find difficult to shake. The same instinct that compelled Eve to reach for the fruit that would give her the knowledge of good and evil still compels people to focus on what they are owed, on what they have "earned," on what they have "coming to them." We are so tempted to fix the scales. We are so tempted to keep score.

We would do well to remember that our God is not a God who keeps score. He is not a God who acts entitled or who tacks on extra dues, taking as much as He can get. He is a God who seats the lowly with princes. He is a God who seeks avenues for reconciliation and mercy.
