LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

Ten cuidado con lo que deseas

Probablemente hayas escuchado la frase “Ten cuidado con lo que deseas.” En mi experiencia, no se utiliza a menudo con mucha caridad. Por lo general, lo escuchas decir como una advertencia. El sentimiento oculto detrás de esto es este: no eres tan fuerte como crees que eres.

Como cristianos, no debería sorprendernos mirarnos en el espejo y reconocer esa realidad. No somos tan fuertes como pensamos. Estamos una y otra vez conmocionados y consternados por nuestras propias debilidades, nuestros propios miedos, nuestras propias deficiencias.

¿Debemos tener cuidado con lo que deseamos? Los apóstoles le pidieron a Jesús que aumentara su fe, y Él les dijo que eso requeriría trabajo. Se necesitaría sufrimiento. Se necesitaría paciencia. Pero Él no dijo que fuera imposible.

Como corresponsables diarios, debemos seguir deseando imprudentemente. Pídele a Dios cualquier cosa y todo, ven a Él con todas tus necesidades. Ruégale gracia sin límite.

Cuando escuchamos la voz de Dios, no siempre dice lo que queremos escuchar. Pero siempre dice la verdad perfecta. Si nos habla de una dificultad que pensamos que no podemos soportar, consolémonos sabiendo que somos los corresponsables, no el propietario.

Sharing the Gospel

Being part of a family means that everybody works together. Your parents work to give you a good place to live, food to eat, and clothes to wear. You probably help with jobs around the house, too, like picking up your toys, taking the garbage out, or setting the table. Each person in the family has work to do. The same is true in God's family. God has special work for us to do, especially to help others. Find happiness in your work.

Prayer

Dear God, help me enjoy helping my family and others.

Something to Draw

Draw a picture of yourself setting the table for dinner.

Mission for the Week

If you know of people in your church who are very old or sick, talk to your family about ways to help them. You could rake leaves for them, help them clean their house, or bring them groceries. Help with a smile.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Be Careful What You Wish For

You've probably heard the phrase “Be careful what you wish for.” In my experience, it's not often utilized with a lot of charity. You usually hear it said as a warning. The unspoken sentiment behind it is this: You're not as strong as you think you are.

As Christians we shouldn't be surprised to look ourselves in the mirror and own that reality. We are not as strong as we may think. We are time and time again shocked and dismayed by our own weaknesses, our own fears, our own shortcomings.

Should we be careful what we wish for? The apostles asked Jesus to increase their faith, and He told them it would take work. It would take suffering. It would take patience. But He didn't say it was impossible.

As everyday stewards, we need to continue wishing recklessly. Ask God for anything and everything, come to Him with all your needs. Beg Him for grace without limit.

When we hear God's voice, it does not always say what we want to hear. But it always speaks the perfect truth. If it tells us of a hardship that we think we cannot bear, let us take solace in the knowledge that we are the stewards — not the landlord.

Violent Conflicts

Question:

What is the Christian attitude towards violent conflicts?

Answer:

In the Beatitudes, Jesus teaches us “Blessed are the peacemakers” and to “love your enemies.” All human beings are made in God's image and likeness. We are one human family — brothers and sisters despite what divides us. Christians have the obligation to prioritize peaceful means to resolve conflicts. War wreaks a toll on a nation. Civilians bear a disproportionate burden of this cost during the war itself and as the nation rebuilds. However, those in authority have the obligation to protect the innocent.

During the gradual fall of the Roman Empire, theologians began to theorize that war could be just if it was a defensive measure of last resort. The “Just War Theory” was later expanded by St. Thomas Aquinas, who also included moral obligations during the war itself, including the protection of civilians. Those in public authority have the obligation to carefully examine their motives, agendas, and rationale for violent force. Should a cause be just, those who fight and defend under such circumstances must be valued and honored. They deserve our support both during and after the war.
